Cal Spas® Introduces the F-1222 Fitness Spa

Leading spa manufacturer offers new cost effective fitness spa

Pomona, CA — (July 18, 2014) Cal Spas, Ultimate Fitness™ F-1222 provides the ideal aquatic workout experience. This spa is the perfect way to achieve a complete workout without the harmful impact land-based exercises can have on muscles and joints. The new fitness spa was developed to allow users of various fitness levels the freedom to perform full body aerobic exercises, resistance training and rehabilitation in a safe controlled environment.

It is proven water exercise enables the heart to work more efficiently and accounts for lower blood-pressure, joint flexibility and muscle strengthening. What is unique about the Ultimate Fitness™ F-1222 is the shallow 3' water level which permits full range movement without losing stability due to jet pressure or water depth.

The Ultimate Fitness™ F1222 was developed by Cal Spas® engineers to provide an unsurpassed aquatic workout. The importance of living a healthy lifestyle and maintaining a fit body have become important factors in the everyday life of people of all walks of life. This spa is an easy and fun way to stay in shape and receive maximum health benefits. Some of the advantages include increased muscle strength, lung capacity and long-term flexibility.

This durable fitness spa is made with a powerful 6.0 BHP Swim Jet Pump, 2.5" Plumbing, Hi Flow Main Drains and an exclusive Bio-Clean Filter to maintain fresh clean water during your workout.

“With so many swim spas to choose from we decided to develop a spa that is unique to the industry and a wonderful product for consumers. I wanted to develop a spa that was specifically for aquatic workouts, to ensure maximum health benefits were received at a price that would not break the bank. We achieved that with the F-1222,” said Casey Loyd, Cal Spas® President.
